Dear Friends,

I have come to an important decision. It happened as I sat at the concert Saturday evening at St. Matthew Church. The decision? In my next life I want to come back as one of the Donohue clan. The Donohue's I speak of are our own organist and choir director at St. Mary's ; Steve Donohue. The funny thins is that it wasn't even Steve playing at the concert. It was his brother-in-law Frank Mitchell Bush who entertained us with one of the finest piano concerts I have ever heard. Which had me thinking; is there anyone in Steve's family who isn't talented? Thus my decision to want to be a Donohue in my next life.

Mr. Bush is a prizewinning concert pianist who performed works of Schubert, Chopin and Prokofiev. He has also played on the NPR (radio), CBS (television) and at the White House for then, President Carter. The concert began at 7:00 PM and it was truly moving to watch the sun set over the fields behind St. Matthew Church as Mr. Bush played.

So, thank you to Steve Donohue for organizing this for us and to Frank Mitchell Bush for sharing his wonderful talent with us. Rest assured that immediately following the concert I invited Mr. Bush to come back again, and soon!

God bless,
Fr. John

A Ministry of Love

Next weekend, the second reading and the Gospel will speak to us powerfully of the role of love in our Christian life. One place I experienced that message coming to life was at Keuka College, teaming Engaged Encounter weekends there. Unfortunately, since 2005 there have been no Engaged Encounter weekends (a tremendous form of marriage preparation) in our diocese, for lack of sufficient team couples to present. The Spirit has been nudging me to do something about that. After prayer, conversation, research into the history, and contact with the regional EE coordinators, it is time to cast the net for teams. Do you believe in marriage? Would you like to see engaged couples get the best preparation possible? Perfect marriages need not apply. EE requires ordinary couples who have made marriage work, are willing to reflect on how and why, and willing to share their life and love with those preparing for marriage. Please e-mail me at Ring@dor.org or give me a call or text at 315-730-0882. Also, please pray for success in resurrecting an Engaged Encounter community for our diocese!! Thank you, Fr. Bob Ring

The Spiritual Pilgrim
a Catholic invitation to faith

Bishop Matthew Clark believes that human beings have a constant need for forgiveness and that forgiveness is available in Christ through the Sacraments of the Church.

Bishop Matthew Clark reflects on the power of the Lord's word in the newest video on the Spiritual Pilgrim Evangelization website: "What do you Believe About Forgiveness?"

Program: H.O.P.E Youth Mentoring

Want to make a difference in a child's life? Livingston County Catholic Charities is currently looking for volunteers to dedicate 4 hours a month mentoring at-risk children between the ages of 6-14. You could be the positive role model and encouragement to help these children succeed. For more information please contact Carrie Lyons at (585) 658-4466 Ext.29 or clyons@dor.org.

If you have someone in your family who is moving to a nursing home or another similar facility (or may already be residing there) short term or long term, please contact the Parish Office at either St. Mary's (229-5007) or St. Matthew (346-3815) so pastoral care can be provided. Because of HIPA laws, the facilities are unable to share this information with us. As a faith community, we would like to continue offering pastoral care, but sometimes do not know where a person has been moved. Thank you!

Rochester Catholic Diocese invites you to join us for the 22nd Annual Celebration of the Caribbean Mass on Sunday June 10th, 1 pm at St. Monica Church (831 Genesee Street in Rochester). Mass will be celebrated with Caribbean Music & Musicians. Following Mass, everyone is invited to sample Caribbean delights prepared by members of the community.

Praying for our Sick

We get many requests from people to pray for friends and relatives. We are happy to do it! But, please remember, we do not remove a name unless asked to do so. Please review the list above. If there is a loved one that can be removed, please let the office know. You can call (346-3815 or 229-5007) or email vfinazzo@dor.org. It is a comfort to know that prayers do work!!!

Do you have an hour to spend with the Lord? We are always looking for volunteers for Eucharistic Adoration at St. Matthew Church. Come pray the Rosary, meditate using Scripture, read about the life of a Saint, ask for forgiveness or just sit quietly and "be" in the presence of God. Call the office if you are interested or if you'd like more information.

"Of all devotions, that of adoring Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament is the greatest after the Sacraments, the one dearest to God and the one most helpful to us."
