St. Mary's, Honeoye and St. Matthew, Livonia Lenten Mass & Speaker Series 2010

March 31 Fr. Jerome Schifferli – Playful Prayers
@ St. Matthew Most recently, Father is the retired pastor of St. Joseph's and St. William's Churches in Livonia and Conesus. Celebrating 65 years of ordained ministry, Fr. Schifferli offers a wonderful perspective on life and God.

St. Matthew Dinners for families with new babies...we would like to update our files. If you have made dinners for families with new babies and are willing to continue, or would be willing to make a dinner for a family who welcomes a new child into their home, please email Lori Allen at allens.1@hotmail.com When a new child is brought home, the parish tries to help welcome that child and family by supporting them with some home cooked dinners. We are also able to offer the family a baby blanket knit by the Hearts and Hands Ministry of St. Matthew Church. Thanks for all you do!

Sunday Offering - Thank you for your gifts to God!

Vocations

Today, we hear of Jesus' triumphant entry into Jerusalem. Later this week, we will walk with Jesus on the painful and sorrow-filled road to Calvary and the Cross. How was Our Lord able to stay on the path to which his father had called him? It was obedience to God, certainly, but it was much more than that. Jesus trusted, not only that God would lead him in the right direction, but that God would travel with him every step of the way. It is the same for us. God invites us to follow the path meant for us – our vocation – and promises to walk that path with us. Whatever your vocation - married life, religious life, ordained priest or deacon - remember that God walks that path with you every step of the way.

Palm Sunday of the Lord's Passion

What a day of ups and downs! We start out with the account of Jesus' triumphant entry into Jerusalem. In Luke's version, which is proclaimed this year, we hear the crowds reprise the refrain of the angels. In Luke, at Jesus' birth the angelic choir sang out, "Glory to God in the highest and on earth peace to those on whom his favor rests" (2:14). Today, it is the citizens of Jerusalem who shout, "Peace in heaven and glory in the highest," as Jesus rides by. Completing the circle from angelic to human to every created thing, Jesus tells the Pharisees who want him to rebuke the crowd, "If they keep silent, the stones will cry out!" (19:40). This is a day of exaltation!

But it doesn't take us long to hit the lows that are also part of this day. The story of the Passion reminds us that even though Jesus was hailed as the king riding through Jerusalem, he was also crucified under that same title: Jesus of Nazareth, King of the Jews. Yet even as he hung upon the cross, Jesus' words spoke of forgiveness. He prayed, "Father, forgive them, they know not what they do." He said to the repentant thief, "You will be with me in Paradise."

In some ways the experience of this day reflects what happens to us in everyday life. For the most part, our life is a series of ups and downs. There are days when things go well, and days when life seems to treat us badly. What is called for is a response consistent with a Christian way of living. In his darkest moments, Jesus did not give up hope. He promised the thief paradise. Jesus also did not give in to vengeance, but instead forgave. How we live through the ups and downs of life will reveal how we put into practice each day the example given to us by the Savior.
