

Dear Friends,

It doesn't happen very often, but every once in a while I will hear people comment about people talking in church before mass begins. I explain to them that if anything, I have encouraged an atmosphere of welcome so it really does not bother me. In fact it is one of the reasons I asked the architects when they were designing St. Matthew Church to make sure that people walked into a light filled church.

For the most part darkness does convey quietness and lightness does convey an atmosphere more conducive to talking. My only request is that when we enter into the celebration of the mass we recognize that it is a prayerful time.

What people fail to realize is that from where I sit; I can hear and see just about everything. I've heard what's on sale at Wegman's, the pair of shoes the dog ate this week, to the latest bursitis remedy that isn't working!

I guess the best way to put it is hearing conversations before and after mass is, without question, a joyful noise unto the Lord. But try to remember where you are during mass and enter into a conversation with God. I promise you Wegman's, the dog and your bursitis will still be waiting for you when you leave church. Who knows, maybe if you pray real hard it will be just Wegman's and the dog waiting for you!

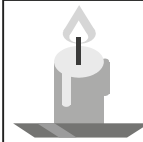

God bless,
Fr. John

Low gluten hosts are now available! Celiac disease affects as many as one out of every 133 people. Those suffering from this condition cannot ingest any gluten, a protein found in wheat. Eating gluten causes intestinal damage and can lead to many secondary illnesses. If you or a family member would benefit from a low gluten host at the celebration of the Eucharist, please contact either the St. Mary's (229-5007) or St. Matthew Parish Office (346-3815). You will be taught the procedure for receiving a low gluten host at the time of communion.

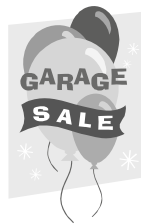

This host has been approved by the Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith. The development of low gluten hosts that could be approved by the Congregation for the Doctrine of Faith was a long process. If you are interested in the fascinating story, go to: www.benedictinesisters.org

Jewish-Christian dialogue

Tuesday, June 29, 2010 –

7 p.m. at St. Matthew Community Room

An Ecumenical group of women from the Livonia area have spent some time reading the book, The Faith Club. It is the journey of three women from New York City: one Christian, one Jewish and one Muslim who meet for several years to begin to understand the similarities and differences in their faith perspectives. To further our understanding of other faith traditions, we have invited Jan Katz and Lesley Glowinsky to share with us "Judaism 101". It is our hope that by learning about other faith traditions, we can better understand those we come in contact with on a daily basis. If you are open to learning about Jewish traditions, culture and religion, in an environment of acceptance and open – heartedness, we invite you to join us on Tuesday, June 29 at 7 pm in the community room at St. Matthew. Questions? Call Alice Miller Nation at 346-3815.

Kayak Retreats

Sun. July 11th @ 3pm
Sun. Sept. 12th @ 3 p.m.

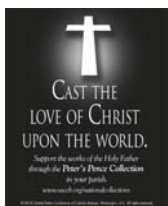

St. Mary's and St. Matthew Faith Community welcome you to some time to enjoy God's creation through a kayak retreat.

Call St. Matthew Parish Office, 346-3815

to register. We will meet at the boat launch of (east side) Canadice Lake.

Bring your boat and a life vest.

After kayaking and packing up boats, all will meet at Hemlock Lake Park for refreshments and conversation.

Today we support the Holy Father in his charitable works. The Peter's Pence Collection is taken up worldwide in an effort of solidarity to support the most disadvantaged: victims of war, oppression, natural disaster and those in need of emergency assistance. Cast the love of Christ upon the world—please be generous in today's Collection.

Looking for Volunteers-Garage Sale

We are in need of volunteers for the St. Mary's Annual Garage Sale. Think about helping out for a few hours, a day, the whole time. We are very flexible! You'll meet some great people and even though you are working, you'll have a good time! There will be a brief meeting today following Mass, please come and see what it's all about.

The time is almost here!!!

The directories are at the printer and should be done and delivered sometime this summer. All families that had their pictures taken last fall will receive a directory. To know when the directories are here and ready to be picked up, keep an eye on future bulletins and on our website:
