

Dear Friends,

I had the great pleasure of attending St. Mary's Annual St. Patrick's Day party this past Saturday. Amazing food and great entertainment. I might be mistaken but I think it may have been one of our biggest crowds yet! Many thanks go out to the St. Mary Parish Life Committee for all the hard work they put into making this possible. They did a beautiful job and really deserve to be recognized.

Do you think you could spare an hour this Sunday (the 27th) for a little bit of prayer, a lot of music and even a little bit of education? Last year when our diocese was celebrating the theme of Spirit Alive, the Unity Council of churches (St. Agnes, St. Mary's, St. Matthew, St. Paul of the Cross & St. Rose) had a joint choir get together that was very well received. Because of the number of people who asked if this would be done again we are having what is being called "Gathering as One" at St. Mathew Church at 2 pm. The five area Catholic Church choirs will be coming together to sing individually and collectively.

Included in this will be Joan Workmaster who will give a brief talk about the new Roman Missal that will be implemented this Advent. As I stated this was very well received last year and I hope you will take the time to come and enjoy. I promise you won't regret it.

God bless,
Fr. John

Operation Rice Bowl—3rd Week of Lent

When the Israelites felt that they were out of options in the desert and pleaded to God for help, God answered their prayers. The "Gathering on Hope with Bishop Matthew Clark" will offer an opportunity for participants to reflect on the topic of hope in a quiet, sacred setting and become renewed in the spirit.

The program will be presented in two locations:

§ 7 to 9 p.m. Monday, April 4, at St. Mary Our Mother Catholic Church, 816 W. Broad St., Horseheads, N.Y.

§ 7 to 9 p.m. Wednesday, April 6, at Sacred Heart Cathedral, 296 Flower City Park, Rochester, N.Y.

Along with reflections from Bishop Matthew Clark on the topic of hope, the evening will include spiritual readings on hope and time for individual and group reflection. Participants will develop individual action plans on the topic of hope to help guide them in daily living. There will also be a question-and-answer period with Bishop Clark and time for refreshments.

The event is a unique opportunity for women and men to take time away from the pressures of life to reflect and recharge in an evening mini-retreat. The program is free; no advance registration is required.

The evening is sponsored by the Women's Commission of the Diocese of Rochester. The mission of the Women's Commission is to lead, educate and voice issues in church and society that impact women and girls. The commission serves as an advisory board to the bishop on issues of concern to women in church and society. There are 18 members, including two college students, from a variety of parishes in the diocese.
