

Dear Friends,

As this piece had to be submitted on Tuesday, it precedes my homily for this weekend. So if I'm repeating myself, please forgive me.

There are not words in my vocabulary to adequately express my gratitude to the people of St. Mary's who have supported me these last twelve years, years of tremendous personal growth, years in which much of what I knew in my head took seed and grew in my heart. This growth comes at a cost, of course, but it is not a cost that bears measurement, for the rewards are immeasurable. I am humbled by your expressions of love and concern. I hope I have in some small way made that clear.

And to all of you of St. Matthew, I thank you for the warmth with which you welcomed me to your Sunday celebrations and to other events. There was never a time when I felt like a stranger. Yours is a loving and welcoming community

To all who were able to stop by on Saturday, for your cards and good wishes, for all who worked so hard to make the reception possible, thank you from the bottom of my heart.

For those who do not know, I am not leaving my home in Canadice and I will remain a parishioner of St. Mary's though I may take another assignment elsewhere following a leave of absence. So this is not goodbye - you're not rid of me. I don't think I could ever let you go.

Know that you are in my prayers. Enjoy your summer and honk if you see me!

Deacon Roger

At the beginning of the year, Pope Benedict XVI shared that "it is necessary above all that every person be motivated by the authentic spirit of peace, to be implored ever anew in prayer and to be lived in daily relations in every environment" (Homily, Vatican Basilica, January 1, 2011). The Peter's Pence Collection gives us a chance to unite in solidarity with the Holy Father and the faithful worldwide. The pope uses the Collection proceeds to provide emergency assistance and aid to the most disadvantaged around the world. Please be generous in the Collection and help cast the peace of Christ upon the world.

"I am the living bread that came down from heaven; whoever eats this bread will live forever; and the bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world. For my flesh is true food, and my blood is true drink. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me and I in him." - Jn 6:51, 55-56
