Women's Group is a wonderful gathering held twice a month at Hagerty Hall on Spring Street in Livonia. Loosely facilitated by Alice Miller Nation, we laugh and pray together, discuss a book each year and support one another as women of faith. As we celebrate our tenth year, we invite you to consider joining us. Comprised of women of all ages, we have two rules...what is said at women's group stays at women's group! And, even if you did not get your reading done, you can still come! Think about it! The next gathering will be on Monday, September 26 at 9:30 a.m. Hagerty Hall is located at 41 Spring Street in the village of Livonia. Questions? Call Alice Miller Nation at the St. Matthew Parish office.

Do you know anyone who might be interested in finding out more about the Catholic Church? Classes for those inquiring will begin on September 21 at 7 pm at Hagerty Hall on Spring Street. For more information, please see Alice Miller Nation.

Dear Friends,

This week I am very happy to welcome Steve Donohue to St. Mary's as our new organist and choir director. Steve comes to us not only from St. Matthew Church but also from St. Mark's in Greece. I know you will make him feel welcome and that he will be a wonderful addition to our parish family.

I also need to thank K C Gordon for being so helpful in this time of finding a new organist and choir director. She came out of retirement to help St. Mary's. It was no small feat for KC as she and Ed are preparing for a move to North Carolina and beginning a new life closer to their new grandchild. We wish them much happiness and safe travels and hope they will make a habit of coming to visit regularly.

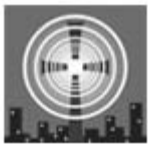

As you have heard me talk from the pulpit and in this column we are preparing for the implementation of the new Roman Missal beginning this Advent. In the upcoming weeks I will include some questions and answers regarding the upcoming changes. In fact this past Friday, I will have taken a course on the new Missal, (my second, to familiarize myself to the new wording and changes. So keep looking to this column for more information regarding it.

God bless,
Fr. John

Bible Study for the Gospel of John: "For God so loved the world, that He gave His only begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him shall not perish, but have eternal life." These and so many other favorite biblical quotes and stories come from the Gospel of John. It is a Gospel unique in many ways, its perspective, its audience and its impact on our current day theology, yet we only read from it during certain holiday times of the year. Come to our bible study and learn more about the Gospel of John and the three associated letters that follow. We meet most every Tuesday evenings from 6:30 - 8:00 beginning October 4th in St. Matthew's conference room. The sessions will be facilitated by Scott Proctor. Please call St. Matthew to register.

It's that time of year again. As the weather gets cooler and the leaves change color, we say goodbye to many summer parishioners. We wish safe travel and a wonderful fall, winter and spring to them. If you are leaving our faith community for any period of time and would like to be kept up to date on what's happening here, please call the office

The Station of the Cross
Catholic Radio Network

WHIC 1460 AM broadcasts quality Catholic programming 24 hours a day, seven days a week. It has borne abundant fruit over the past 10 years and we believe that God is not finished with this radio apostolate. We hope, by the grace of God to bring Catholic Radio to even more markets.

The changes are coming! Did you hear the news that there will be some changes in the things we say when we go to Mass? Are you looking forward to the changes in the liturgy that will start the first Sunday of Advent? Here is your chance to learn about what is going to change and why before it happens!

From October until December, those beginning in the RCIA process (the process to learn more about the Catholic Church) will be learning about the changes in the Mass, why the Church has decided that it is important enough to make these changes.

We'd like to open this up to anyone who would like to learn more about their faith: the changes in the liturgy and ongoing topics that might be of interest to you. The facilitators are great: Scott Proctor, Fr. John, Deacon John Hoffman, Jamie Fazio and Clara Onderdonk make up the team who teaches adults. The coffee is good, the discussion lively at times and good friends are made.

You are welcome to come one time, for three months or every other Wednesday for the year!

RCIA meets two Wednesday evenings a month at Hagerty Hall, 41 Spring Street from 7 - 8 p.m. Come and join us.

October 05- group one-topic: Changes in the New Roman Missal

- group two -topic: Acts of the Apostles

October 19 - group one -topic: More Changes in the New Roman Missal

- group two -topic: Paul's Letters

Questions? Call Alice Miller Nation at the parish office, 346 -3815.

Small reception to follow

Hopefully, everyone has received the 2011-2012 Catholic Ministries Appeal mailing by this time and has had a chance to review the materials. Extra copies of the brochure are available at the entrance to church. The theme for this year's campaign is "The Power of Many... Stronger as One". The CMA affords each of us an opportunity to support the larger Church so that it can meet real needs throughout the Diocese. Your support enables the Church to be responsive and caring. Please be generous in your response. Every gift is needed and important! If it is easier, you can make your gift at www.dor.org—you can also pay your pledge off in six installments. Pledge forms, which can be put in the collection or mailed directly to the Diocese, are available at the entrance to church. Please pray for the success of our efforts. Thank you.

Praying for our Sick—We get many requests from people to pray for friends and relatives. We are happy to do it! But, please remember, we do not remove a name unless asked to do so. Please review the list. If there is a loved one that can be removed, please let the office know. You can call (346-3815 or 229-5007) or email vfinazzo@dor.org. It is a comfort to know that prayers do work!!!

Friday, September 30th is the feast of St. Jerome. This is Fr. Schifferli's feast day. Please offer a prayer! Thanks!

Next weekend (Sunday October 2nd) is the annual St. Francis blessing of pets. It will take place at St. Matthew Church, in the parking lot at 12:30 pm. Please keep your pets on a leash or in a container. Thank you!
